Tips from Gabi Köberl:

Avoid intense midday sun.

Apply generously before exposing your skin to the sun and reapply regularly to maintain protection, especially when perspiring or after swimming.

Applying only small amounts reduces the level of protection.

Keep babies and young children out of direct sunlight; use protective clothing and sunscreen with a high sun protection factor (SPF over 25).

Even sunscreens with a high SPF do not offer complete protection from UV rays.

Excessive sun exposure poses a serious health risk!

Avoid contact with eyes.

Avoid contact with textiles (may stain).

Provides a 1:3 ratio of UVA protection to UVB protection, as recommended by the European Commission.
