Product description:

Birch Juice is an organic health supplement to help you detoxify your body, healthily and naturally, and improves the appearance of your skin. As well as helping you rediscover your vitality, a detox programme also brings beauty benefits: cleansing your system purifies the complexion to leave skin clear and bright.

A dermatological study* confirmed that when using Birch Cellulite Oil twice daily over 28 days in combination with Birch Juice, testers' skin was on average noticeably 35% firmer and skin elasticity improved by 20%.

Visible improvement of skin structure was recorded in 85% of cases, and testers' skin showed a healthy 20-25% increase in blood circulation/ microcirculation.

Suitable for vegans.

Ingredients:

Aqueous extract of birch leaves*(94%), Lemon Juice(6%)

*From certified, controlled wild collection Biodynamically grown.

Tips from Gabi Köberl:

Dilute a tablespoon in water or tea 2 – 3 times daily. Alternatively dilute the same amount of juice (30 to 45ml) in a large bottle of mineral water to consume during the day. 3 - 6 weeks treatment is recommended to cleanse the system. Shake before use. Once opened the product will keep for up to 1 month in a refrigerator.
