Price: 13.95 €

Product description:

Light cream with mattifying powder effect

The face cream contains Rügener chalkstone that lends the complexion an even finish and improves microcirculation. The natural powdery effect prevents oiliness. The cream is infused with other high-quality oils such as organic wild rose oil and almond oils. Both maintain the skin's natural moisture balance. An intensive cream with a light-weight formula that is perfect as a base for make-up.
