Product description:

Soap-free cleaning with especially mild components.

Also for men, daily intimate care is of course part of daily personal hygiene. Thorough cleaning of the genital area prevents from problems which might develop for example through natural fatty deposits under the prepuce. Furthermore it reduces the probability to catch an infection or to transmit pathogenic germs.

The Intimate wash gel MEN No.28 gently cleans the genital area without soap. A special vegetable component of lactic acid adapted to the male genital area acts antibacterial. The lacto-intensive active complex promotes the balance of the intimate flora, organic plant extracts of camomile and calendula calm stressed skin.
