Product description:

Feel your own tender sensuousness in your balanced, silky-smooth skin – like a delicate lotus leaf dappled with beads of water that make your skin happy.

The harmonizing soul oil has a balancing effect, delivers concentrated hydration, and leaves your skin feeling silky-smooth. The potent blend of Indian medicinal herbs – lotus blossom, neem, mimosa pudica and brahmi – is an ancient Ayurvedic formula. Dry patches are hydrated and the skin's natural oil-water balance is restored. At the same time, the essential oils stimulate your spirit; the mere application becomes a truly sensuous experience.

The secret to this balancing, suffusive effect is khadi Pink Lotus Beauty Elixir: khadi Elixir is prepared according to ancient Ayurvedic formulas using a traditional practice that involves gently simmering hand-picked Indian medicinal herbs over an open fire. Ayurvedic plant extracts prepared in this way (medicinal decoction) combine the full potential and unique essence of the individual plants to create a harmonious whole.

The Indian lotus blossom is considered a holy plant in Ayurveda – it moisturizes, harmonizes the skin's energy and lends your skin sensuous purity.

Brahmi contains strengthening and cleansing ingredients such as flavonoids and saponins. It delivers concentrated nourishment to dry, irritated skin.

Nut grass, known as a medicinal herb for millennia, has gentle but lasting anti-inflammatory, cleansing and restorative effects.

Mimosa, also known as silver wattle, has a restorative and soothing effect on the skin.

Listen to your skin when it sings to you! Indulge in Pink Lotus Beauty Soul Oil and enjoy the beautiful moment as it beads on your skin and enfolds you in its sensuous fragrance. Even as you start to massage the oil onto your body, you will feel your skin becoming silkier and more balanced as your senses awaken.
